SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

Pilgrims canter to Canterbury, saunter to the terra sancta (the Holy Land), and roam to Rome. These terms for different kinds of paces have entered English, not just as words for speed but as part of an ancestral memory of these important destinations linked to change and holiness. The tombs of Peter and Paul, the first apostolic witnesses to the Church, bring us close not only to history but also to the one who sent them. Rome is not heaven, but it is the diocese of the successor of Peter and Paul. We receive the message of the apostles: "Repent, the reign of God is at hand." Do we hear that message? Do we act on it?

PETER'S PENCE

Today, we are supporting the Holy Father in his charitable works. The Peter's Pence Collection is taken up worldwide to support the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. This is an opportunity to join with our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous in today's collection.

SAINT PAUL

Paul the Apostle, also called the Apostle Paul, Saul of Tarsus, and Saint Paul (c. AD 5 – c. AD 67), was one of the most influential early Christian missionaries, with his writings forming a considerable portion of the New Testament. His influence on Christian thinking has been of utmost significance due to his role as a prominent apostle of Christianity during the spreading of the Gospel through early Christian communities across the Roman Empire.

According to the Bible, Paul was known as Saul prior to his conversion, and was dedicated to the persecution of the early disciples of Jesus in the area of Jerusalem. While traveling from Jerusalem to Damascus on a mission to "bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem", the resurrected Jesus appeared to him in a great light. Saul was struck blind, but after three days his sight was restored by Ananias of Damascus, and Paul began to preach that Jesus of Nazareth is the Jewish Messiah and the Son of God.
